Relationship of administrative bodies at different levels of government

The relationship between the administrative bodies of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the executive bodies and administrative bodies of entities, BD B&H, and cantons is regulated by Article 32 of the Law on administration. This relationship is based on authorities determined by the Constitution and the Law, as well as on cooperation, mutual information, and agreement.

Article 33 of the Law on administration prescribes that administrative bodies have the right to request data, reports, and other documentation necessary for the exercise of their competencies, from executive bodies, administrative bodies, and other bodies of entities and BD B&H. There is also an obligation for the administrative bodies of Bosnia and Herzegovina to provide executive bodies, administrative bodies, and other bodies of entities and BD B&H with necessary data for the functioning of these bodies.
